

Scottish Arctic Network

Arctic Frontiers Abroad Call for ECR Travel Bursary

The Scottish Government and SAGES fund the Scottish Arctic Network (ScAN). ScAN aims to call on all Scotland-based scientists, academics, students, Research Fellows, PhDs and community-based organisations with research interests and expertise connected to Arctic matters and Scottish Arctic collaborations. The aim of this call is to support Early Career Researchers (ECRs) to attend two aligned Arctic meetings:

Location: Aberdeen

ScAN meeting

16 March 2023 @ 1300

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/scottish-arctic-network-scan-free-event-all-welcome-tickets-552634423437>

Arctic Frontiers Abroad

17 March 2023 @ 0930

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/arctic-frontiers-abroad-scotland-tickets-522609778917>

Each bursary is worth £150 to contribute to travel, accommodation, and subsistence for the meetings. It is open to Early Career Researchers (ECRs) from any discipline. If you are travelling from an island or have challenging travel requirements that will be considerably in excess of £150, please enquire about an enhanced bursary.

You should submit your application, no later than Monday 6th March 2023.

Notes

- Applicants can be from any Scottish research organisation, with preference given to those from HEIs which are members of University of the Arctic
- Definition of ECR from UKRI website

To apply, please provide Finlo Cottier @ Finlo.Cottier@sams.ac.uk with a short statement – no more than one side of A4 – outlining the following:

Applicant Details

- Applicant Name
- Position (e.g., PG student, ECR status, other)
- University/Institution Name
- Applicant Email Address
- Research interests

Travel Details

- Budget and any other sources of co-funding
- Amount Requested (up to £150)